Parker County REACT

The Parker County Responding to Every Assault and Crisis Team (REACT) is a victim centered organization developed to assist those who have been affected by trauma or violent crime. REACT volunteers respond at the request of any Parker County law enforcement agency to assist with the needs of victims and may be asked to:

- Provide on-scene crisis intervention
- Provide emergency transportation to women's shelters, etc.
- Provide special help to child victims
- Assist in delivering death notifications
- Serve as liaisons between victims and law enforcement agencies or social service agencies
- Accompany victims to the hospital, law enforcement agencies, etc.
- Provide referrals to support agencies as necessary
- Provide basic information in obtaining Protective Orders

Parker County REACT is a 501(c)3 organization and relies solely on donations and proceeds from the Annual Charity Golf Tournament. Funding is utilized to support local law enforcement in assisting with victim needs, to provide volunteer training academies, educational materials, etc.

For more information regarding REACT, please call Freedom House at (817) 596-7543 or Weatherford Police Department at (817) 598-4325.
